

Century

- Please print out this form and fill the required details then enclose the completed form as your advice note when returning sections to Century.
- Please include receipts or proof of purchase where available.
- Broken or Service sections only to be returned (if no work needed on a section then do not return). Broken sections can be cut up to suit postal services and reduce postal cost. Service sections (e.g. guide replacement) will need to be sent back full length otherwise you will be charged for a broken section.
- Customers outside the UK will be responsible for shipping charges to Century and return shipping from Century as well as any customs duties/fees.
- Century will not be responsible for any loss/damage to your rods while in transit or from work carried out at Century. Please ensure you have separate insurance if you require it i.e. possibly able to cover rods via a home policy, fishing tackle only policy, courier insurance.
